editorial

Dear reader,

Fact is, fewer and fewer people believe in God - at least in the First World. Church attendance is receding and the number of those officially leaving has shown a marked increase. The numbers were also influenced by the many scandals around the Catholic church (e.g. paedophilia). To me this is also a consequence of the general loss of morality and decency.

Take for example sexuality. The other day on one of the radio stations I follow, they had a sequence about sex at old age. Women, age 70 and 80 (!), were telling their stories about having sex with younger men using all kinds of techniques to create and increase libido, desire and pleasure. The other field is same sex "marriage" forcefully swiping through one country after the other. There, the slogan of 'equal rights' is used to promote these scandalous trends worldwide.

This goes of course together with the claim that standards of the churches are not following the evolution of societies and have to be 'modernized'.

While people are of course free to act as they wish, what a contrast to the messages in the Bible. In the New Revelation Jesus confirms the position re sex, stressing that the victim is one's soul. Exaggerated sex activities not only rob the person of clairvoyance but bury the soul into the flesh/matter ("breaking the flesh"). So instead of easily separating itself from the body at death, the soul can only free itself with much difficulty, meaning dozens if not hundreds of years of "hellish" labor and pain.

Short excerpt:

[Great Gospel 04:80.17] (The Lord:) "And if a sex addict resorts to any means for the gratification of his desire other than the organ I provided in the lap of the woman, he will hardly ever be able to see My face. Moses ordered death by stoning [Leviticus 20:13], and I do not completely abolish this most severe punishment for such crimes and criminals who have fallen into the hands of the devil, but I give you the fatherly advice to remove such sinners from the communities...

But tell this to somebody today, you can imagine the reaction. Still, I suggest you study the respective paragraphs and articles by searching for the keyword 'sex' here.

As for the present issue you will find the second part of the "Who is Jesus" article together with two others of great interest and finally Sermon 19 about the resurrection.

Don't miss the increasing number of sermons on YouTube (see above), and have a beautiful and prosperous spring season.

May God richly bless you.

Jesus Christ (2 of 2) (#3040.2)

This reflection comes in two parts. Its author is W. Schlaetz, who has been studying the New Revelation for decades. He is a tremendous resource for everybody interested in this gigantic gift of the Lord, almost knowing this Encyclopedia-like work by heart.

10. Jesus' Teachings regarding the Trinity

Jesus dealt with the question of the Trinity, the triple unity, and with it the closely linked possibility of confusion with the concept of three Gods.

The LORD said: "Listen! If God, as the Creator of all beings, yet different from all other beings created by Him, doubtlessly was, is and will be eternal, does that impose upon Him an immutable necessity to remain in that particular primordial centre? If already man has been given free movement in all directions of even the body, and endlessly more so of the spirit, why should the absolutely free God restrict Himself in that wherein He gave even His created beings full freedom? I tell you: Since the divine Endlessness in everything has also the might to move freely without any limitation, It surely also has the right to convert Its glory into the flesh in order to present Itself to Its created...

The infinite God has put his perfect image into your spiritual heart, which is your life and is within you.

Dreams, Visions, Faces (#3088)

Who hasn't reflected on a dream upon awakening, one that stays in the memory? While some dreams do not particularly affect us and we quickly move on to the demands of the day, others won't let go. So we continue to concern ourselves with them.

The question can be posed: What are dreams? Are there different divisions and classes within them, and what are they there for? What can we learn from them?

At all times, there have been attempts to interpret dreams. The dreams of the Pharaoh, which were interpreted by Joseph, are a famous example of this.

In the New Revelation Jesus tells us what dreams really are and what they mean. We learn that all our dreams do not get lost. Rather, as we have experienced them in us, we will find them again and recognize them as our own. That means we should devote a certain amount of attention to dreams.

During normal sleep, the soul dreams without a connection to its spirit and the images seen show its inner conditions. If we write down our dreams, we will gain a picture over time of how our inside life is provided. Upon waking, the dreams which appeared real can be interpreted quite differently.

These dreams stem not from the soul, but from the good or bad spirits surrounding them. Good spirits cause a strengthening of those dreaming. In this way, those dreaming sometimes foresee future events. Dreams, visions and faces: here are a few clippings from the original text.

Your mighty love for God is this image that is animating you.
Therefore, do not remove this shrine from your our heart within,
but make it secure in your heart!

A huge Prediction

[Gifts of Heaven GH.01.40.07.24.04] See, all that you have ever thought and dreamed, all that you think and dream now, and all that you will think and dream in the future will not get lost forever. As it once proceeded in you, you will essentially find it again and recognize it as your own and be pleased or saddened. It was necessary to touch on this

3. reflection

What are Heaven and Hell, really (3221)

[GGJ.02_08.01] [The Lord:] "After they had all rendered Me this morning praise, Faustus who of course was present at the meal and during the praise, briefly asked me, "But where from did Your disciples get those, so worthy of You, so glorious and totally true benedictions? Never have I heard anything so exalted."

[02] Say I [Jesus]: "Obtain the Scriptures from the Pharisees and read King David's Psalms therein; there you shall find it all. The Primate Jairus, with whom we shall have dealings still today, shall procure you such Scriptures for sure. Because two days ago his daughter was laid in the grave; she died! He has deeply repented his sin against Me, wherefore he shall also be helped, and he shall not be lost to the Kingdom of God"

[03] Asks Faustus, "Lord! What kind of Kingdom is that, and where is it?"

[04] Say I, "Well, My dear friend, the actual true Kingdom of God for the true friends of God is everywhere, but nowhere for the enemies of God; because for these in turn, everything is hell, where you can and want to cast your eyes, and other senses. Below and above, all is the same. Look neither up to the stars, for they are all earths like the one you tread, nor sink your eyes down to the earth, because it is under judgement like your flesh, which once must die and decay! But instead, seek diligently within your heart; there you shall find what you are seeking. For into every man's heart is cast the living seed, from which the eternal dawn of eternal life shall bloom.

Thus you will have God always very close to you and will not need to ask:
Beyond which star does
God dwell.

The Lord's Sermons (LS19)

The Resurrection of the Lord

Easter Sunday

Mark 16, 1-8: "And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. And they said among themselves, Who shall roll for us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away, for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. And he said unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that He goes before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid."

Since the beginning of time God had been in contact with mankind. With every nation. In every century. Without interruption.

The form of communication differs. God came in the form of angels, He used prophets whom He instructed (e.g. Isaiah). He gave people visions (e.g. Swedenborg) or revealed His messages in dreams (e.g. Joseph) and He had people write by direct dictation (e.g. Moses).

Communications, instructions and messages did not stop with Jesus. Some churches, unfortunately, claim that Jesus said it all. With Him revelation stopped. Despite the contrary written in scripture.

The New Revelation, God's New Word, was received by dictation. Word by word. Every word of those 25 volumes was dictated to Jakob Lorber, Leopold Engel and Gottfried Mayerhofer by the Lord. It took about 50 years to finish. Some say it's the Eternal Gospel promised by the angel. It sure contains wisdom for generations of researchers.

To doubt that the texts of God's New Word were really of heavenly origin ask for the report "New Revelation and science". It shows that most prophecies done have become reality by now.

Cornerstones of the New Revelation:

1. In His New Word, the New Revelation, God reconfirms again and again that love is the basis of God. "The Father" really is God's love.
2. God created all beings - all angels, all souls, all spirits - out of love.
It was out of His endless love that despite the high treason of Lucifer and one fifth of all created beings He did not destroy them but created the material universe. Matter is a prison and school through which He leads the rebellious souls back into His kingdom.
3. Out of love He created man and put him to test on earth and gave him the choice between good and evil.
4. Out of love He took flesh in Jesus, His "Son", suffered terribly, accepted utmost humiliation and sacrificed His physical body to free all humans from the slavery of sin.
5. Out of His love He gave mankind the privilege to become His children if they choose to obey. A privilege not even His first angels have.
6. Out of love He has been incredibly patient with mankind. But He also said that out of this love He will chastise mankind if they turn away from Him, lest they'll be lost. That happened and will happen again.
