editorial

Dear reader,

The Christmas season is telling us another year is almost finished. Didn't it start a couple of months ago? It can only be the constantly increasing pace of modern life in our countries which makes us have this feeling.

At our side we are very happy that we managed to introduce quite a few new elements this year. There are the Sermons which we started to upload to YouTube ("TheLordsSermons" example here). By now 19 Sermons are online. We managed to contract a very good speaker in addition to the one we had first. In the end all 53 sermons will wait for you.

The second change is you can now enjoy several audio sequences on our web site. On the right side you can click on any of these links, e.g. the "The Christmas Story" here. And if you go to the 'Downloads' area and scroll down to the very end, you will find those audios as downloadable files. Burn them on a DVD and you have beautiful Christmas gifts.

Finally we reorganized the 'Downloads' area. There you will be able to download original New Revelation books in form of eBooks. There are only two now, but as soon as we will have finished the proofreading, you will find more. All free for now.

As far as the subjects of today's edition are concerned we want to draw your attention to the New Testament article. Here Jesus gives us a clear account when, where and who took notes and captured what was of importance. Quite different from the many very disparate theories of Bible research en vogue today.

So, there's quite some material for your quiet Christmas hours (if there is such thing nowadays...).

Have a very blessed and merry Christmas and a healthy and prosperous New Year.

May God richly bless you.

2. today's focus

The Origin of the New Testament (#3208)

Introduction

Wouldn't it be great if we could have been present during the time Jesus spent on earth? We could have experienced ourselves how He taught and healed what His nature was, and how the gospels actually came about. Then we would not need to wonder with the academics who wrote which gospel, which might be the oldest gospel, and whether the gospel writers knew Jesus himself. If we listen to researchers, we are dependent on nothing other than speculation.

So we are not able to judge the significance of the gospels in the true sense, and this is actually of great importance. God, our father in heaven, walked the earth Himself in the body of Jesus 2,000 years ago. In the Revelation of John (chapter 14, verse 6), He gave us information which leads us further. There it states: "And I saw an angel flying through the midst of heaven, and He had an eternal gospel to proclaim to those living on earth- and to all pagans and genders and languages and peoples." Jesus dictated this eternal gospel to His prophet Jakob Lorber between 1840 and 1864 and thus kept the promise from John 16. In verse 12, it says "I still have much to say to you but you cannot bear it now (verse 13). But when the spirit of truth will come, He will direct you to the truth. For He will not speak about Himself. But He will speak of what He hears and will proclaim to you what is in the future." This eternal gospel consists primarily of Jesus' main work through Jakob Lorber in the ten volumes of the "Great Gospel of John". (Volume 11 was revealed a few years later.) At the conclusion of the (NT) Gospel of John, the apostle John wrote "There are many other things which Jesus did and said. But, if they were written down, the world would not hold all the books to be written." (John 21. 25).

The soul that does not carry a cross grows weary, dies and gets lost in the night of death.

The misery of life,
however, is a vessel of life, wherein this is solidified like a diamond.

Gifts of Heaven 01,41.04.28

Now, almost 2,000 years later, we can digest everything. In this Great Gospel of John, his main work written down by Jakob Lorber, He revealed almost all of His conversations with His disciples, all of His talks to them, as well as His deeds in His three years as an apprentice. So, people today can relive these years, as if they had been there themselves, as was Peter.

Through Jakob Lorber, Jesus revealed a variety of things about the origin and nature of creation, as well as continued life in the world beyond. This has been provided for humanity today and in the future. Jesus explains in detail how the New Testament really emerged.

3. reflection

Why don't they correct Bible Flaws? (3219)

Because every church swears on its own Bible. That is the short version. The long one is rooted in the stubbornness of church representatives. Jesus explains here, that not one century passed without His intervening to correct that. But people who received the word of God were labeled crazy, insane or worse. They were not "eliminated" like most of the Old Testament prophets, but the result was the same.

Here, after an introduction in chapter 90, Jesus elaborates.

Great Gospel of John 01 Healing of the son of a royal nobleman

Joh.4:47. There was a royal nobleman whose son was lying ill at Capernaum. When he (the sick son's father) heard that Jesus had come from Judaea into Galilee, he came to Him (to Cana) and begged Him to go down (to Capernaum) and help his son who was dangerously ill.
