editorial

Dear reader,

More than 25 years ago Dr. Raymond Moody, a psychologist and medical doctor became interested in the phenomenon of Near-Death-Experience (NDE). He published a book titled "Life after Life" which became an instant best seller. He interviewed thousands of people who had this experience. He made a science out of this difficult field and published statistics. All the people he interviewed experienced a glance into the spirit world which follows life on earth. If you never read one of his books, I recommend the mentioned one, or "The Light Beyond". In the latter he not only reports about amazing experiences. He also deals with the arguments of doubters in a very convincing way.

One would think that these many experiences with the beyond of totally reasonable people has impacted the belief system of the world. May be it has for many people. And still the latest fad in the general trend towards disbelief are "No-God Churches" like the Sunday Assembly of the UK. "Churches" of Atheists are springing up like mushrooms everywhere. We read that more than 100 are in existence worldwide since 2013. People seem to have a need for a club. Just being atheist is not enough.

I have a feeling that all this - and the world political and environmental situation - is moving the world to a very special event. What it is and when it will happen is not clear of course. But it sure is good to keep the antennas in reception mode, just in case and to continue to love like He recommended. When you wind up in the Spirit World your "Love Account" makes all the difference, people who returned claim.

Enjoy summer and stay in shape.

God bless

Rudolf Julius

1. Fundamentals

What happens to dying Children?

It is a devastating and heartbreaking event for parents when their children die.

However, they can find comfort in the volume "The Children's Realm of Yonder" which is taken from the spiritual work "The Spiritual Sun". Here it is described how these children have more or less shed their bodily coverings. However, their beautiful and fully functioning souls live on eternally in the world beyond, imbedded in the love of God. The children are introduced into the kingdom of children, which is directed by Mary, the mother of Jesus. The angels active there are those who had shown themselves to be the friends of the children on earth.

At first the children are placed in classes corresponding to their age, in which they can mature and grow so they will be in a position to understand the heavenly teachings.

The heavenly method of instruction is so effective, that the souls of the small children quickly become educated souls in all areas. As they are taught the undistorted truth about all things with regard to God's teaching, they are spared the detours which lead to false theories. The children also learn quickly.

If justice were God's sole attribute, truly, no one could hold his own before Him. For there is not a single hair on you humans that would not be addicted to sin and thus subject to annihilation.

Always remember this answer of Jesus:

My disciples said: "If You, o Lord, will in future times no longer be visible or audible by anyone, how will You then stay with those who are Yours until the end of times?"

I responded: "...I will stay with those who are mine, in spirit, in word and in truth, and those who will have a great love for Me, will also be able to see Me personally now and then for a few moments. Those however, who will live according to My word and will carefully search for the inner truth of it, I will speak in such a way that they will understand it in their heart and in this way I will put My words into their me me, will receive visions in which My being, the Heavens and eternal life will be explained to them, as well as the fate of the apostates and the wicked ones. And also in this manner I will stay with those who are Mine until the end of times of this Earth. (GGJ.08,54.)

2. today's focus

What's the use of Prayer?

The greatest power at man's free disposal is prayer. Unfortunately, few people are aware of this today. But we should pay attention to the fact that all thoughts we have ever thought will return to us and materialize. But this is not all. For all of eternity, we will not get rid of our thoughts and, after the death of the body, will take them with us to the next life. There, they will be the basis of our new life. But, if we know that all the bad thoughts return to us isn't it foolish and negligent to ever think about anything bad? Thus we should control our thoughts.

But God's love, gentleness and mercy are quite as endless as is the endlessness of infinite space and, therefore, He does not forget even the least of all created beings.

Unfortunately, it often happens in daily life that people do not live harmoniously, bother each other, and turn life into a hell. If we consider that, without exception, we descend from our ancestors Adam and Eve and thus are all brothers and sisters, we should place our life together on a new and improved basis. With the help of prayer, we can do that!

3. reflection

Resurrection of the flesh?

Until a few years ago the Catholic creed contained the "Resurrection of the flesh". While in some Churches (e.g. in Switzerland) this prayer by now it has changed to "Resurrection of the body", in the mass I attended in France last Sunday, they still pray the resurrection of the flesh "...nous croyons en la résurrection de la chair..."

It is interesting to learn that this question was of great interest already at the time of Jesus.

Here is the excerpt of the respective conversation between Jesus and His disciples to be found in volume 6 of the Great Gospel of John:

At this the innkeeper said: "I also know in myself such a person and now I know also what I have to do. I do not want to speak of all the prophets and about Solomon's Song of Songs – all of which I have until now understood very little or none at all; but I have often thought while reading through such wise men of antiquity that they train people

Thus you will have God always very close to you and will not need to ask: Beyond which star does God dwell.

Household of God
vol. 3, 56

very much in thought by their mystical language and thus positively force them into an ever deeper soul-searching, and I find that very good. Once one has then gone right into himself, then one little light comes after the other, and one then becomes clear about quite a few things which previously seemed an unravelled mystery.

The Lord's Sermons (LS20)

The Lord Appears to His Disciples

John 20, 19-31: "When the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when he had so said, he showed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, we have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

March 5, 1872

This chapter confirms My resurrection and shows you its importance and that it was essential if My teaching, dearly paid for with such great sacrifices, was to have permanency and success, for you find My disciples frightened, lacking courage and faith, locking themselves in their houses.

When I appeared to My disciples - as I did to Mary Magdalene at the tomb - one of them was so unbelieving that he would only convince himself of My resurrection by touching My wounds.

The New Revelation, God's New Word, was received by dictation. Word by word. Every word of those 25 volumes was dictated to Jakob Lorber, Leopold Engel and Gottfried Mayerhofer by the Lord. It took about 50 years to finish. Some say it's the Eternal Gospel promised by the angel. It sure contains wisdom for generations of researchers.

To doubt that the texts of God's New Word were really of heavenly origin ask for the report "New Revelation and science". It shows that most prophecies done have become reality by now.

Cornerstones of the New Revelation:

1. In His New Word, the New Revelation, God reconfirms again and again that love is the basis of God. "The Father" really is God's love.
2. God created all beings - all angels, all souls, all spirits - out of love.
It was out of His endless love that despite the high treason of Lucifer and one fifth of all created beings He did not destroy them but created the material universe.
Matter is a prison and school through which He leads the rebellious souls back into His kingdom.
3. Out of love He created man and put him to test on earth and gave him the choice between good and evil.
4. Out of love He took flesh in Jesus, His "Son", suffered terribly, accepted utmost humiliation and sacrificed His physical body to free all humans from the slavery of sin.
5. Out of His love He gave mankind the privilege to become His children if they choose to obey. A privilege not even His first angels have.
6. Out of love He has been incredibly patient with mankind. But He also said that out of this love He will chastise mankind if they turn away from Him, lest they'll be lost. That happened and will happen again.
