editorial

Dear reader,

OK, another year practically over (as I write these lines) and there is the question where did it all go? Everybody who is very busy must have the same feeling.

Our family has been blessed to have had a very positive and even exiting year. The biggest excitement was a recent trip to Egypt. One thing stood out most in this fascinating country: The Coptic Christian community and their churches.

I did not expect that. Every decent sized town had its (Coptic) church. Sure there are many more mosques around. But the Coptic community is very vibrant, although one hears of attacks against priests and church buildings now and then. So more and more police is on guard, not only to protect tourists.

In the New Revelation the Lord tells us that Lazarus emigrated to Egypt after Jesus had called him back to life to avoid the constant hassle of the temple (Great Gospel ...). It seems that the Coptic Church does not know about this. We have made contact with a Copt representative and hope to establish a permanent base for discussion and information. We pray for their church to evolve in safety.

The subjects in this edition deal for one with the fascinating question: Why did God come to Earth at all? A question many believers ask. The answer: because He loves us.

We publish the article New Revelation predictions and Science to show to the doubters that Jakob Lorber surely was not the lone author of his writing. The texts he heard and recorded contain predictions which were sometimes fulfilled with such a precision that this can only be called superhuman.

After a short statement by the Lord concerning Rome and His teachings the Lord reminds us in Sermon 6 to "Make sure that you see things as they really are and that you daily fulfil your duty on this earth while you have to live here, so that when the grave hour of departure has come you have no regrets and need not mourn anything.

Let's remember this.

Have a lovely feast of Christmas and proceed to a healthy and happy New Year.

May God bless you.

Why God became Man

The following is taken from the 3rd volume of the revealed work "The Great Gospel of John", a work which in fact constitutes an autobiography of Jesus Christ and an invaluable gift of the Lord to mankind. It was given to Jakob Lorber between 1860 and 1864.

Setting: With His disciples and an important number of guests Jesus resides in the vicinity of the town of Caesarea Philippi. The talk was about various matters concerning the temple and the relationship of God and man.

One of the guests present is Philopold, a very wise (intelligent) and pious man. After having discovered that the spirit of Jehovah resides within Jesus, the discussion turned around the question of God's incarnation.

Whatever you do, do it from the true depth of life.

Great Gospel of John 03, 243 Jesus' words #15

Philopold having asked the Lord to explain the reasons for this move, it is the Lord who invites Philopold to tell the listeners the reasons why the supreme power of creation decided to become man.

The Great Gospel of John, vol. 3, chapter 182

[03_182,02] Your observation about the difference between an angel and a true person of this Earth is quite right; it is very accurate how you have summarized things and developed them quite superbly. My gentle dozing was only a consequence of the bodily tiredness; for we have now worked for almost two full nights!

[03_182,03] But since you are such a true platonic sage, explain to us now the actual reason for My descent into the flesh of this Earth!

[03_182,04] What I am in the spirit and was since eternity, you know; but that I also have a body with flesh and blood like any other person, that you see and feel as well as everyone here at this table.

[03_182,05] Why did I clothe Myself with a mortal shell? Why did the original reason for all existence and life clothe Himself in a shell of obvious mortality?! Must it be so, or is this only a whim of the eternal spirit of God which is in Me and resides and works? If you can uncover these things satisfactorily, you shall receive a token of wisdom from the heavens even in this life!"

Science confirms New Revelation Predictions

- sometimes after decades

In this piece it will be shown that the texts called "New Revelation" dictated to Jakob Lorber and his two successors Gotfried Mayerhofer and Leopold Engel must have a higher power as author.

The first reaction of many people, who learn that Jakob Lorber received texts from God, dictated verbatim, is disbelief.

Come on, that guy talked with God? You must be joking!

This is a natural reaction of societies who have been drifting away from God. They also have been driven away from God by the media. There are several reasons. One is that society to a great extent only believes what science and research discover and publish. The other is that the Christian churches literally forbid God to talk to humanity.

Their argument?

With Jesus Christ and the Gospels everything has been said. There is nothing more needed. Full stop! Just ask you priest or your pastor.

Do not ever ask: Lord, where in all the world are you? For I shall never say to you: I am here! Instead, ask your heart-whether it loves me. And in your heart, which loves me, I shall call to you: Here I am at home with all My love, grace and mercy!

Childhood, ch.246 Jesus' words #49

Little do they know that their affront to God is mind boggling. God says never in 2000 years has a century passed without Him directly providing information to humans. However, most if not all were royally ignored by the powers that be. Already Swedenborg received a massive amount of heavenly wisdom. But it is nothing in comparison with the 25 volumes of Lorber's New Revelation.

Why did God "publish" that much in the middle of the 19th century? Remember, it was the time of the Industrial Revolution, the Enlightenment, the surge of new ideas, philosophies and theories in science and all sections of life also causing political unrest. Darwin appeared and many others such as philosophers who started the idea that either there is no God or God is dead.

Exactly at that moment in history the writings of Jakob Lorber emerge predicting a number of developments, discoveries and inventions years before they came true. Today we see this with great clarity.

Take astronomy. Lorber wrote in 1850, when science just started to have an idea that the visible stars are possibly organized that we are not only in a galaxy but that there are billions of galaxies out there. Astronomers had to wait until big telescopes like the one at Mount Wilson 68, or Mount Palomar 98 years later were available to confirm this. Starting in 1948 scientists discovered that there are subatomic particles out there with a life span of one trillionth of a second. Lorber wrote exactly that in 1840. Or in 1864 he wrote that there will be air travel, something that started in experiment form at the turn of the century 36 years later and came into reality in the 1920s.

Our point: Normal human beings can imagine or predict many things but not with such precision and scope. Thus, the conclusion is that the Lorber writings are really what Lorber claimed, the word of God.

The table below shows the time gap in years between predictions contained in the New Revelation given to Jakob Lorber and the respective scientific discoveries or developments. This is followed by the paragraphs where the appropriate predictions or claims were laid down.

3. reflection

Rome, the blessed one

Setting: Jesus is in discussion with Cyrenius, the supreme governor of the Roman provinces of Asia and Jarah, a very intelligent and loving joung woman. The subject of the discussion is the religion of ancient Rome in the light of the new teaching of Jesus.

[Great Gospel of John 05_009,01] Jarah says, "It goes without saying! If it is obviously as you have just openly revealed it to me, then I have no objections towards you. If you have a good will, its success cannot be fundamentally wrong, not even when it does not appear beneficial before the eyes of the world. I let myself be fooled by appearance certainly least of all; but I admit that by nature one can sooner attain a truthfully good will than the purest truth, which only then becomes a true and most effective beacon of life for the good will. According to what you said, you have generally always had the good will unchanged; individual blurs could change little or nothing of the whole.

[GGJ.05_009,02] Now you will receive, in addition to your good will, the purest light of the eternal truth, through which your originally good will must come over the right ways and true means to the certain attainment of the best results, and then obviously nothing but the best will be expected of you! Oh Lord, bless these simple words of mine, so that they become eternal truth!"

[GGJ.05_009,03] I say, "Yes, My thousand fold beloved Jarah, your beautiful and true words will be blessed!

[GGJ.05_009,04] Rome shall stay for a long time the best abode for My teachings and My special grace, and this great imperial city shall reach an age in this world, like very few Egyptian cities will reach, though not as undamaged as Rome. Its outer enemies shall hardly ever harm this city; if it gets damaged, it will only be because of time and its few internal enemies!

[GGJ.05_009,05] But unfortunately My teachings will subsequently pass into a type of idolization even in this ruling city; nevertheless My word and the best sense for the customs of life will be generally maintained within that.

[GGJ.05_009,06] In later times the spirit of My teaching will mostly disappear there. People will chew on the outer crust and regard it as the spiritual bread of life; but with the right means I will lead them back onto the right path again and again! Even if they will have committed much harlotry and adultery, I will make them pure again at the right time!

[GGJ.05_009,07] For the rest, however, it will stay a herald of love, humbleness and patience, which is why a lot will be condoned at all times, and the great of the world will rally to it and want to hear the words of their salvation from its mouth.

[GGJ.05_009,08] However, in general nothing will remain completely pure for a long time in this world, thus neither will My word; but in Rome it will still stay the most pure for the purpose of life and as a relic for history!

[GGJ.05_009,09] I assure you of that, My dearest friend Cyrenius, as a complete and true blessing of the most beautiful and true words of our most beloved Jarah!

[GGJ.05_009,10] One millennium after the other will show and tell you that these words of Mine regarding Rome's endurance and position will come true!

The Lord's Sermons (6)

Sunday After Christmas

Presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple

St. Luke II, 33-40: "And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him. And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against; (Yes, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity; and she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him."

December 25, 1871

This chapter begins with My birth, speaks of My circumcision and then deals with the three days I spent at the temple in Jerusalem, when I was twelve years old. The arrival of the three wise men from the east, the slaying of the children, and other things - as, for instance, the flight into Egypt and return after the death of Herod - are not mentioned here, and so I shall skip most of it since you know it anyway from the Gospel of James the story of My childhood [see "The Childhood of Jesus"] as well as from My disciples' records.

So let us stop at the above mentioned text:

"And Joseph and Mary marvelled. .."

About what? They marvelled at Simeon's prophetic words and at Anna's statements, both of whom had recognized in the child, that had been taken to Jerusalem for circumcision, the Saviour, not only of the Jews, but of all mankind, who had come to liberate the spirit from the constraint of matter .

It is understandable that Joseph and Mary did not comprehend what those two prophesied, for -looking at all the mysterious happenings, beginning with Mary's conception up to the birth and presentation in the temple, - it is obvious that neither Mary nor Joseph knew what to think of all this.

Although the Jews were used to receiving direct messages from Me through prophets, they did not pay much attention to them while the prophets were still alive, and their prophecies gained importance only when they began to come true.

They were waiting for a Messiah, but their hopes were based on worldly

Matter, or the solidified will of God, is a redeeming institution through which the separate entities that fell with Satan can, in accordance with the existing order, attain completely independent freedom.

Great Gospel 02, 232 Jesus' words #77 considerations; they were waiting for a Messiah who, most likely born in a palace, would one day as a great hero deliver them from the hated yoke of the Romans. That the son of a carpenter - as what My foster father was known to them - was to become their Saviour was quite beyond their expectations and comprehension.

7. overview: the new revelation

Since the beginning of time God had been in contact with mankind. With every nation. In every century. Without interruption.

The form of communication differs. God came in the form of angels, He used prophets whom He instructed (e.g. Isaiah). He gave people visions (e.g. Swedenborg) or revealed His messages in dreams (e.g. Joseph) and He had people write by direct dictation (e.g. Moses).

Communications, instructions and messages did not stop with Jesus. Some churches, unfortunately, claim that Jesus said it all. With Him revelation stopped. Despite the contrary written in scripture.

The New Revelation, God's New Word, was received by dictation. Word by word. Every word of those 25 volumes was dictated to Lorber, Engel and Mayerhofer by the Lord. It took 37 years to finish. Some say it's the Eternal Gospel promised by the angel. It sure contains wisdom for generations of researchers.

The two new commandments Jesus introduced complementing the 10 of the Old Testament are "Love your God with all you power and all your heart" and "Love your neighbor like yourself". And added, that your enemy also is your neighbor (e.g. Luke 10:27).

Out of the seven Spirits of God three stand out: Love, Wisdom and Power.

- 1. In His New Word, the New Revelation, God reconfirms again and again that love is the basis of God. "The Father" really is God's love.
- 2. God created all beings all angels, all souls, all spirits out of love. It was out of His endless love that despite the high treason of Lucifer and one fifth of all created beings He did not destroy them but created the material universe. Matter is a prison and school through which He leads the rebellious souls back into His kingdom.
- 3. Out of love He created man and put him to test on earth and gave him the choice between good and evil.
- 4. Out of love He took flesh in Jesus, His "Son", suffered terribly, accepted utmost humiliation and sacrified His physical body to free all humans from the slavery of sin.
- 5. Out of His love He gave mankind the privilege to become His children if they choose to obey. A privilege not even His first angels have.
- 6. Out of love He has been incredibly patient with mankind. But He also said that out of this love He will chastise mankind if they turn away from Him, lest they'll be lost. That happened and will happen again.
