

#06, Q3, 2008

HisNewWord-Newsletter

The quarterly Newsletter for those interested in what God wants all living humans to know. He has revealed it in the most massive and directly dictated revelation to date. For details please visit www.HisNewWord.org.

in this edition

Editorial

1. In the news Where is the good news?
2. Today's focus God and Sex - the Sixth Commandment
3. Reflection The Antichrist - a person?
4. Excerpt Sermon #6: The Baby Jesus in the Temple
5. Where to find on our HisNewWord site
6. Our free e-mail library
7. The New Revelation - Overview
8. Finally

editorial

Dear reader,

A friend of mine lately told me to send him good news and not always bad ones. Which made me think. It's true, most news today is negative. You read a paper, or look at TV, where is something positive? Rarely.

And on top, the negative stories are getting more and more incredible or disgusting. Its not only governments who do or initiate appalling actions. The citizenry does it too.

The age span widens. Ever more younger and older people commit atrocities. The children with her is over 70! Has hell already come to earth?

Governments? How about the government which has been preaching human rights for decades but orders their military to commit torture almost worth the sophisticated medieval techniques, according to independent reports? The government which kills a millennium old culture because it hates religion? The government which does not accept help from abroad for hundreds of thousands of hurricane victims. Do they want to reduce the number of mouths to feed? How would you call a government which hassle and murder the opposition to an extent this opposition prefers to withdraw to save lives?

Countries being flooded or hit with terrible quakes or tornadoes, economies suffering from exploding prices on top of faltering financial institutions?. The last three months were full of bad news.

Will we find the needle of good news in the hay stack?

Well, it may become worse, Jesus told us so. He also told us that the time will be shortened, lest we'd loose all faith.

So whatever may come, hold on to Jesus. He will save us from the worst tsunamis hell can come up with.

Looking for good news for you until next time.

God bless

Rudolf Julius

Editor

www.HisNewWord.org

PS: We invite you to share this email with friends. So do not hesitate to forward it to people who you know are interested in their spiritual development or may become so in the future.

1. in the news

Where in fact is the good news?

Nature seems to get angry.

Is earth hitting back?

I guess we have seen the deadliest spring in a long time. Among the more mayor events we have seen the devastation of part of the Burma (Myanmar) coastline, the extraordinary earthquakes in China and lately several tornados and the big Mississippi flooding in the US. Each of these catastrophes claimed thousands if not hundreds of thousands of victims.

On the other hand we hear more about the bee problem. Only recently Australia, Ireland, France and the US have reported problems with what is called Colony Collapse Disorder (CCD). It is really a collapse, not just a reduction if some beekeepers loose 90% of their bees.

The problem here is clear: Bee pollination is required for many vegetable and all fruit products. If there are no more bees, forget not only about honey, but reasonable food prices and perhaps enough food at all. As one of my friends said: No bees, no bats, no food. (The only advantage would be fewer obese people.)

Let's hope that authorities around the world wake up financing research into the reasons of this menace, because as strange as it sounds, scientists have almost no idea what is causing the globalized collapse.

Well, we know what Jesus told us in the New Revelation: Our lands will become barren. It is the foreplay of the cleansing of the Earth.

If you want details on CCD go to these links:

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/science/nature/7312358.stm>

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/asia-pacific/7459158.stm>

http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/uk_news/northern_ireland/5214634.stm

2. today's focus:

God and Sex or The sixth commandment

- Introduction
- The law
- Why the law was given
- Consequences
- What you will learn

Introduction

At the outset we have to say that the subject of sexuality is immense. The amount of material in the New Revelation touching it is just amazing.

However, if you consider that this is one of the biggest if not THE biggest issue of mankind, it's no wonder.

natural way. As He had decided to create two different sexes – male and female - He chose to “program” mankind in a way that procreation consisted of intercourse. To make it work, He had to make it attractive for both sexes. Thus desire and attraction was created to achieve exactly that: procreation; and the fun/pleasure part was necessary for it to work.

At the same time God of course knew that Satan would use these powerful instruments to divert mankind to sin, namely to make mankind partially forget about love and use the strong urge for pleasure only.

And that is precisely what God’s commandments and instructions are all about.

The love of the flesh: “This is more or less the main evil of all mankind. Nearly all physical ailments originate from this lust and definitely all maladies of the soul.

Man finds it easier to desist from any other sin but this one; for the other sins have only external motivations whereas this sin has the motivation in itself and in the sinful flesh.

Therefore, you shall turn your eyes away from the tempting dangers of the flesh until you have become masters over your own flesh.” [Great Gospel of John 04:80,02-03]

Even if one is blind this subject would be anything but unknown.

In school as youngsters it was what we called “subject number one”.

Today we are all wading like in a knee-high swamp of sex, if we want it or not. Sex blasts from every billboard, every media and most of the image-using publicity.

Sex sells.

And it sells because from early on we are exposed to it and – especially the male population – is constantly confronted and aroused by it.

The law

Among the ten commandments there are two who touch on the subject.

Thou shall not commit adultery

You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife.

But that’s just for starters. Have a look in the Old Testament at Leviticus 18 and 20 to find the bulk of No-No’s in matters of sex. Most of it is out of the question today – with some exceptions like the ones seen in France, Belgium or Austria (incest and or child abuse). Let’s hope this is not the tip of an iceberg.

If society today is still not accepting sex between children and their parents, uncles/aunts, and in-laws and intercourse with animals (“for they [other peoples] committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.” Exodus 20,23), same sex intercourse is becoming more and more accepted by society and law makers. With the result that society has to financially assist people (with e.g. public health insurance and pension schemes) who commit abhorrence before God.

In June (2008) we learned that the notorious gays of California, as well (bizarre while 50% of all traditional marriages will be divorced). You know what happened to Sodom and Gomorrah. We guess there will be a huge replay soon.

Talking to church people and theologians or surfing the internet you will find all kinds of comments and explications. These cover, however, only the consequences for us here on earth. But there is, apart from these transgression being horrific for God, nowhere a fundamental reason given, why God commands chastity and warns of adultery and the sins mentioned in the books of Moses (e.g. Leviticus 18 and 20, Sodom and Gomorrah etc).

Why the law was given

The basics of creation have to be understood.

The New Revelation confirms that we humans consist of body, soul and spirit:

“The soul of man is a spiritual product out of matter in which judged spiritual elements remain to be set free. The pure spirit, however, was never judged. And everybody has a spirit which he received from God. It arranges, performs and guides everything for the developing human being. But this spirit only unites with the soul when this soul by its own will transfers into the recognized order of God and thus has become purely spiritual.” (Three days in the temple 21, 19)

The body dies. Soul and spirit live eternally. So when the body dies, the soul and spirit leave the body.

The spirit has no problem with parting from the body. However, the soul may have a hard time to leave the body. Whether it is difficult or easy for the soul depends on how the person lived its life.

Here, materialism comes into play. Lets look at the two extremes: If the person lived a life according to the commands of God, has led a reasonable love life, has discovered that life is not just the short stay on earth, has distanced him-/herself from the material goodies and pleasures and found that true love should be the basis of all actions, for him/her the separation (death) is easy, without fear. The soul will leave the body without trouble.

On the other end we have the pure materialistic person. This one never has spent a thought about life, God, death or why he/she is here, loves everything money can buy, lives an active sex life with as many partners as possible and ridicules any thought of the afterlife. The soul of this one is deeply buried in the flesh and is so weak that a dying person's death struggle may take days.

What a soul can here achieve in one day towards perfecting its life, it often in the beyond cannot achieve in thousands of earth years.

Great Gospel of John
06:228
w36

Why is this soul weak? We know that for the body the right amount of healthy blood is the basis for its strength. The New Revelation tells us that the blood of the soul is its "life-ether". If a person invests in nothing but the love for material things and performs an active "love life" – the kind where it is rather sex without love – the soul's blood is depleted to an extent that the soul is practically dead.

In this sense one can say that sex kills.

As God wants all people to use life on earth to prepare for their afterlife in heaven, He has given these rules. If these rules are not respected the soul will have to undergo education in the beyond for a long, long time during which it will suffer enormously. Remember, our soul lives forever. The only question is how.

Consequences

The consequences of transgression not only take effect from death.

There are also those 'goodies' like

- Venereal diseases
- Mental diseases
- Birth and brain defects of the offspring and the like

In fact, as mentioned above, God says that all health problems are based on the transgression of these laws. On the contrary observation and restraint would have the benefit of strong health and even clairvoyance according to the Lord's new revelation. You get the picture. Look around and you will see to what extent people have deviated from the road recommended by God.

For reasons of space we will stop here. Please download the full article

"Sex and God" from the Download tab at www.hisnewworld.org.

The full article will cover also the following points:

- Instructions, criticism and recommendations from high up
- The premature breaking of the flesh (children and teens)
- The most shameful whoring
- Jesus' speech about proper procreation
- Polygamy and multiple sex partners

What you will learn:

- Sex imbedded in love was created for human procreation,
- Chastity is beneficial for the strength of the body and the soul,

In the beyond everything, however secret it may have been kept, will become evident right to the smallest details.

Great Gospel of John
05:136
w38

- Sex is blessed if combined with love with the aim of procreating within marriage,
- Sex and love within marriage due to an urge is ok with the Lord's blessing, if such blessing is humbly requested.
- Frequent sex and unorthodox sex practices (prostitution, sodomy, masturbation, cunnilingus, etc.) with one or multiple partners is egoistic self satisfaction and whoring. It enslaves the human being through addiction and kills the soul of all participants, is a sin against the 6th commandment and lands the all participants in hell. On earth this is the reason for a huge number of health problems even for the children. In the beyond the respective soul will suffer for many thousands of years.

To download the full report please visit the "Downloads" tab at www.hisnewword.org.

3. reflections

The Antichrist - a person?

Question

In our present end-time will there be a person representing the Antichrist?

Answer

No. All revealed Jesus texts by Jakob Lorber are just talking about a negative spiritual condition of Christianity which behaves anti-Christian. In some instances Jesus characterizes some Popes (until 1864) or some churches (before 1864) as "Antichrists".

[Earth and Moon 01:72,12] The Lord: "If the poor and blind people in droves follows the asine blubbering of a false prophet, as experience shows, and where graces are dealt out, or learns even more of that miracles blubbering and many graces and thus is rendered spiritually dead, there I must say: Such false prophets will find their right wages. These do not know and do not want to know how God should be worshipped in spirit and in truth. These are just servant of mammon licensed by the world. They value their picture of grace which is often unesthetic and poorly done, much more than God. Because the picture makes them money, but not God as anyway He is the same everywhere.

At the right time these will get much pay by the Pharisees. All who teach such lessons and lead the people to the pictures are the perfect Antichrists and false prophets. Everybody should shun them like the black plague because they master the art of mislead the people with grandiosity and to spiritually kill it with false miracles.

[Spiritual Sun 01:069,12] Instead of the most gentle love of Christ, who bleeding on the cross asked the father within Him to forgive the perpetrators of the crime, you nurture nothing but hate, sect fury, condemnation, judgment and fire within you. Therefore you are as determined Antichrists the exact opposite of the basic teachings of Christ. You rid all your followers of life of the last drop and fill their hearts with death instead.

[Gifts of Heaven 03.42.01.25,12] And behold what almost all churches are fighting now! It's the gold of this world. However, gold and death are identical for me as far as the world is concerned. Look, this is the true Antichrist who does mighty miracles. But his time is over. Conceive it, the end of the iniquity and its last judgment is at hand! Amen. Amen. Amen.

[Great Gospel of John 08:047,10] Again all of them were looking attentively at the image of which the scenes were quickly developing one after another. And look, one could see great migrations of the nations and many fierce battles and wars, and in the middle of the city one could see something that was arising as high as a mountain. On the mountain stood a high and big throne that looked like as if it was made of glowing gold. On the throne sat a ruler with a triple crown on the head and with a staff of which the top end was decorated with a triple cross. Out of his mouth came countless arrows, and out of his eyes and out of his chest countless lightning of anger and very great pride was also shooting out. And kings came to him of whom many bowed deeply before him. He looked friendly at those who were bowing like that before him and he confirmed their power, but those who did not bow before him were persecuted and greatly harmed by his arrows and lightning.

[Great Gospel of John 08:047,12] I said: "This does not represent a special ruler over many nations and people, but only the visible personality of the antichrist. That triple cross stands for My teaching, which during that time will be imposed triply falsified before the kings and their people. False in the word, false in the truth and false in the real application of it.

Everything that infinity encompasses exists only because of man.

Great Gospel of John
02:06
W92

4. excerpt

Sermon #6 The Baby Jesus in the Temple

Luke II, 33-40: "And Joseph and his mother marveled at those things which were spoken of him. And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against; (Yes, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity; and she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fasting and prayers night and day. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him."

(December 25, 1871)

This chapter begins with My birth, speaks of My circumcision and then deals with the three days I spent at the temple in Jerusalem, when I was twelve years old. The arrival of the three wise men from the east, the slaying of the children, and other things - as, for instance, the flight into Egypt and return after the death of Herod - are not mentioned here, and so I shall skip most of it since you know it anyway from the Gospel of James the story of My childhood [see "The Childhood of Jesus", ed.] as well as from My disciples' records.

So let us stop at the above mentioned text: "And Joseph and Mary marveled. .."

What about? They marveled at Simeon's prophetic words and at Anna's statements, both of whom had recognized in the child, that had been taken to Jerusalem for circumcision, the Savior, not only of the Jews, but of all mankind, who had come to liberate the spirit from the constraint of matter .

It is understandable that Joseph and Mary did not comprehend what those two prophesied, for - looking at all the mysterious happenings, beginning with Mary's conception up to the birth and presentation in the temple, - it is obvious that neither Mary nor Joseph knew what to think of all this.

Although the Jews were used to receiving direct messages from Me through prophets, they did not pay much attention to them while the prophets were still alive, and their prophecies gained importance only when they began to come true.

They were waiting for a Messiah, but their hopes were based on worldly considerations; they were waiting for a Messiah who, most likely born in a palace, would one day as a great hero deliver them from the hated yoke of the Romans. That the son of a carpenter - as what My foster father was known to them - was to become their Saviour was quite beyond their expectations and comprehension.

Therefore, Joseph and Mary marveled at the words of Simeon and Anna. Mary had had the most miraculous experiences within a short space of time, quite inconceivable to her. She had given birth to a son without having known a man. She had become a mother without having experienced motherhood in its fullness; for normally a child is the link that joins the lives of a man and a woman, uniting them to a whole, to a family.

Mary was a mother and did experience the joy of seeing her offspring before her, but it was more a feeling of pity for the little babe than a mother's bliss at pressing to her bosom the bond of her husband's love. Thus she did not and could not understand what took place at the conception, at the birth and later on. She acted only in accordance with higher guidance and was passive rather than active, following as a woman and mother only her emotions that bound her to her infant.

Of course, this vague feeling, the doubts and suspicions, which she believed only she alone was carrying in her heart, grew when she heard others express similar and even greater things as she was taking the child into the temple. Through having the circumcision and sacrifices performed in accordance with the law, I was to be received as a child into the Jewish religion and brought up in it.

Simeon's words were most mysterious to Mary, since he recognized the child as that of which she had no idea as yet. But his last words were even more puzzling: "Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against, (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,)), that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed!"

She could imagine that something extraordinary could become of her son since the conception, the birth and so on were accompanied by such extraordinary phenomena. But to have carried a God under her heart and the expected Messiah, the spiritual redeemer -not only of her people, but of all mankind- that was something beyond her understanding. Still at My death on the cross she wept over Me as her son, -a man, not a God. Only through the resurrection was she

He who accepts the full truth of a revelation and clearly apprehends it with his reason, but acts contrary to it, sins and spoils also his life in the beyond often for an unimaginably long time.

Great Gospel of John
06:204
W52

convinced - as were My disciples - of that which I had told them repeatedly.

The sword that was to pierce her heart was the mother's grief; for if she had known and recognized who I actually was, she should have rejoiced at My demise and not mourned.

I had often predicted to her and My disciples what was ahead of Me and how I would overcome death and hell. However, how could they imagine - particularly in those times of the prophets and miracle-working Essenes - that I, a man of flesh and bones like them, who eats and drinks, could be God, the Lord of Hosts Who, after He had grown from a human child, was to end on the cross -at that time a symbol of shame and degradation.

Therefore, Joseph and Mary marveled. They did not comprehend who He was who had come to bring about the fall and rising again of the Jews. The "fall" was the destruction of the Jewish kingdom fifty years after My demise; and the "rising again" the transition of many Jews to Christianity as well as the change of the sign of the cross from a symbol of shame to one of supreme glorification. Do you believe that at the time of My Second Coming there will be better comprehension among men? Not in the least! Then, too, there will be many admirers who will regard Me as nothing more than a man inspired by God. At My Second Coming I will, of course, not come as a child, but as a mature man, and there, too, will be many doubters to whom I shall have to prove My Deity through miracles as the power of the Word would not convince them.

The story of My childhood will repeat itself in its main points and events, but only in a spiritual sense, for then the spiritual understanding will be far more developed, so that the believers will be in the majority, the non-believers and doubters in a minority.

Behold, My children, as I once submitted Myself to the Jewish custom of circumcision, you should submit yourselves to a spiritual baptism, the baptism with the spirit of My love. Eliminate from your hearts what does not belong there, and begin to understand Me and My world better every day, so that your hearts may not be pierced by a sword because by attributing too much importance to the things of the world you mourn what is not worth mourning.

Make sure that you see things as they really are and that you daily fulfill your duty on this earth while you have to live here, so that when the grave hour of departure has come you have no regrets and need not mourn anything.

May you recognize Me, as Mary did when I returned to the Father, and understand that He whom you know as Christ is by far greater and more loving than you have imagined, but that also My demands on you are more severe than you thought.

There are many today who believe in Me and love Me as did Mary during My life on earth. However, this is not enough. Mary recognized only at the cross and on My resurrection that He whom she had borne was not a man but the Son of God, that is, Wisdom that had been separated from Love, Who returned to His heavens after three days in the grave and afterwards appeared to His disciples and the mother of His human body not physically but spiritualized.

See to it that Christ may rise also within you - as He is and was - so that you need not have to marvel if you find Him different from what you expected.

This for a warning, and may you act accordingly! Amen.

5. where to find on “hisnewword.org”

- The Passion of, and according to Jesus Christ - MP3 audio file (3:2 h)
go to: <http://www.hisnewword.org> > Download tab
- The Christmas Story - MP3 audio file (3:14 h)
go to: <http://www.hisnewword.org> > Download tab
- The Lord's Sermons
Here you have access to samples of the sermons.
- Father, Son and Holy Spirit: One or three persons?
Finally a clear language by the Lord, which should end all disputes.
- Is Jesus God?
Clear words by the Son on a matter of widespread dispute.
- Does God have a home?
And if yes, where in infinity or everywhere?

6. Our free email library

Here is a listing of our free e-mail reports. To subscribe just send a blank email to the address listed. For safety reasons you will have to confirm your order with a simple click. Moreover don't forget to whitelist the address if you have a firewall or spam filter.

Christmas@hisnewword.org: Excerpt of the revealed work "Childhood of Jesus", the re-given Gospel of James covering the birth of Jesus. (8 e-mails)

7words@hisnewword.org: Jesus explains the spiritual significance of the words He spoke on the cross. (3 e-mails)

Genesis1@hisnewword.org: The first Chapter of Moses' Genesis made no sense to the Pharisees and makes no sense to us today. Jesus tells us how we have to interpret the language of the great prophet. (5 e-mails)

JesusWords@hisnewword.org: A selection of words of wisdom digested from all books of the New Revelation (ca. 45 e-mails).

John1@hisnewword.org: The first chapters of the Gospel of John are difficult to understand. Here, Jesus explains their true meaning. (5 e-mails) upbringing, desires and talents. But also what drove him to do what he did to Jesus Christ. (5 e-mails)

Passion@hisnewword.org: Jesus gives us the story behind the story, which would have been far too detailed for the Bible. (7 e-mails)

Sermon1@hisnewword.org: Signs of the Future, Luke 21, 25-26. (One e-mail)

Newsletter@hisnewword.org: The current newsletter via e-mail. (One e-mail)

7. overview: the new revelation

Since the beginning of time God had been in contact with mankind. With every nation. In every century. Without interruption.

The form of communication differs. God came in the form of angels, He used prophets whom He instructed (e.g. Isaiah). He gave people visions (e.g. Swedenborg) or revealed His messages in dreams (e.g. Joseph) and He had people write by direct dictation (e.g. Moses).

Communications, instructions and messages did not stop with Jesus. Some churches, unfortunately, claim that Jesus said it all. With Him revelation stopped. Despite the contrary written in scripture.

The New Revelation, God's New Word, was received by dictation. Word by word. Every word of those 25 volumes was dictated to Lorber, Engel and Mayerhofer by the Lord. It took 37 years to finish. Some say it's the Eternal Gospel promised by the angel. It sure contains wisdom for generations of researchers.

The two new commandments Jesus introduced complementing the 10 of the Old Testament are "Love your God with all you power and all your heart" and "Love your neighbor like yourself". And added, that your enemy also is your neighbor (e.g. Luke 10:27).

Out of the seven Spirits of God three stand out: Love, Wisdom and Power.

1. In His New Word, the New Revelation, God reconfirms again and again that love is the basis of God. "The Father" really is God's love.

2. God created all beings - all angels, all souls, all spirits - out of love.

It was out of His endless love that despite the high treason of Lucifer and one fifth of all created beings He did not destroy them but created the material universe. Matter is a prison and school through which He leads the rebellious souls back into His kingdom.

3. Out of love He created man and put him to test on earth and gave him the choice between good and evil.
4. Out of love He took flesh in Jesus, His "Son", suffered terribly, accepted utmost humiliation and sacrificed His physical body to free all humans from the slavery of sin.
5. Out of His love He gave mankind the privilege to become His children if they choose to obey. A privilege not even His first angels have.
6. Out of love He has been incredibly patient with mankind. But He also said that out of this love He will chastise mankind if they turn away from Him, lest they'll be lost. That happened and will happen again.

To get a basic idea about the contents and scope of the New Revelation please visit our website www.hisnewword.org

8. finally

Next edition of His New Word Newsletter: July 1, 2008

To read all previous letters go to 'Newsletter' at www.hisnewword.org.

Publishers: Friends of His New Word, 1274 Signy, Switzerland, info@hisnewword.org

© COPYRIGHT 2008: Friends of HisNewWord.org and Lorber-Verlag, D-74321 Bietigheim, Germany.

All rights reserved. The contents of this e-mail are for personal use only. You may share its contents with a reasonable number of friends in unabridged form only, including this copyright paragraph. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means, electrostatic, magnetic tape, mechanical, photocopying or otherwise, without prior permission in writing from the above copyright holders.