About the Purpose of the Revelation

The Earth, God's second choice?

editorial

Dear reader,

Another three months passed and 2009 is half gone. This time we are not going to comment on the Crisis which certain circles see abating. Our sources are not of this opinion but expect a nasty autumn and more problems next year.

So in this edition we are touching several subjects which are - we hope - again interesting for you. The quest for God is touched as excerpt of Dr. Walter Lutz' Fundamental Principles of life, one of the best introductory works about the Lorber texts. The full version of that first chapter of his book is on our website.

Three citations of the Lord are chosen this time for the Reflection point followed by a clarifying letter taken from 'Gifts of Heaven'. Only 4 months after Jesus started dictation to Jakob Lorber, He revealed why He intervenes, why He provides this Revelation and others and why he always has and always will send prophets to the world.

Point 4a stems from a question a reader had. Mallona was a planet which circled the sun between Mars and Jupiter. It exploded because of sinful behavior of its people. All we can see today are the remains in the form of the Asteroid belt. Consolation: Jesus Jehovah assures us that our planet will not be blown up, despite the best efforts of a number of military industrial complexes to develop ever more 'effective' nukes.

But even if there will not be a second Asteroid belt, let's behave responsibly and pray we don't kill our fantastic space ship in some other manner.

Have a great summer and may God bless you richly

The Quest for God.

Is there a God?

When did you ask yourself this question for the first time? I don't remember when I did. But it must have been in my 40s. And one day I discovered the books of Jakob Lorber in a book shop. There was the answer.

Dr Walter Lutz' work "Fundamental Principles of Life" offers a perfect introduction and overview of the New Revelation. It starts with that question. The following is a part of the first chapter of the book. If you would like to read the whole chapter, we invite you look for it on the 'Downloads' tab of www.HisNewWord.org.

The revealed word of God

In one of Lorber's works the Lord says that His nature and will are always revealed to men in a threefold way: In the order of nature, through a person's own spiritual heart and, finally, through God's messages, the divine Word. Concerning the latter, we are told: "Beginning with the first man on this earth and right to this day men have never been completely without a divine revelation, not even for one year." (Great Gospel of John GGJ 09:019,06) - "And I further tell you: There will always be prophets till the end of the world in all the nations of the earth, what-ever their religion may be. For, only through the prophets a secret bond is still maintained which no dark power is able to destroy."

Whether you see me or not, I am still with you. If you have faith, rely on my name, have trust and hope and love me truly, I am always with and among you.

Great Gospel of John 02,102
(50)

This is also confirmed in the world and religious history of all times and peoples. Not only did the people of Israel, but also the ancient Chinese, Indians, Persians, Egyptians and other peoples of antiquity, receive great revelations as we know from their sacred books. But right to the present time there have been great revelations - at longer intervals through great prophets and in-between through minor prophets, the latter having to preserve the order introduced by the great prophets. (GGJ.06:176) - In view of the extent and depth of the Word of God made known through Jakob Lorber, we must class him as one of the very great messengers of God.

2. today's focus

How to free your soul

From a discussion of Jesus with His disciples. Mathael, a converted Pharisee, who is inspired by the Lord, teaches.

[Great Gospel of John 03:042,01] Mathael, who has clearly heard these words, says, "Make your soul as free as possible from all ties to the world, and then you will soon understand very easily from where a soul can quickly achieve the greatest wisdom! But as long as the soul lies yet firmly buried in the old heap of the decay of death, which is your body, there can be no discussion and no comprehension of any special divine wisdom!

[03_042,02] There, a few steps in front of us, you can see a tree stump which seems to be firmly stuck in the earth. Go there and sit on it, and I give you my word that you will not move from the spot even after many years; only when it becomes rotten and totally brittle will you fall to the earth along with it. But if you cannot separate yourself then from your favourite seat, you will then certainly decay along with it in the end; for everything that is dead must first be completely destroyed, if it is to cross over to any sphere of life again. But if you go down to the water, get onto a boat, untie it, raise the sail and take hold of the rudder, in this way you will no longer remain on one spot, but instead you will soon reach a new land in which you will learn many new things and enrich the treasure chamber of experience. You see, as long as you look after your flesh and your sweet and comfortable life, you will sit on that stump and cannot move on; but if you completely give up the overwhelming worry about your flesh, and only concern yourself with what affects the life of the soul and its spirit, you board the ship of life and will soon move on. Do you understand this image?"

True prayer consists in keeping God's commandments and doing his will out of love for Him. Who prays like that prays truly and incessantly. This is the way also all the angels pray.

Great Gospel of John 07: 85
(W55)

What is the soul?

[03_042,04] A spirit of all life lives in every soul.

[03_042,05] The soul is only a receptacle of life from God, but by no means life itself; for if it was life itself, which one of a prophet could ever pretend to know anything about the achievement of eternal life, or on the other hand about a possible eternal death? But since the soul can only achieve eternal life on the path of true divine virtue, as can be proven by very many examples, it cannot possibly be life itself, instead only a vessel to hold life.

[03_042,06] What one calls the spirit of God and actual life is only a little spark in the centre of the soul. This little spark must be nourished with spiritual food which is the pure Word of God. Through this food, the little spark becomes larger and more powerful in the soul, finally it even takes on the human form of the soul, fills the soul finally once and for all and in the end it transforms the whole soul into its being; then the soul itself becomes complete life which recognises itself as such in all profundity.

[03_042,07] When life fully recognises itself in this way and becomes quite clearly aware of itself, it recognises the truth in its foundations; but as long as that is not the desired case, there can be no talk of wisdom!

[03_042,08] True wisdom is the light of the spirit in the eye of the soul; but if a soul still asks what the spirit is in it – where should the light of the spirit and of all life come from into its otherwise completely blind eye?”

3. reflection

Father - Word - Heart

FATHER

“The One who sent me is my eternal Father and is within me; and thus I – out of love for you humans – sent myself into this world in order to bring and give you eternal life. My Word and my teaching, showing you the way to eternal life, is the will of him who is within me and has sent me. For the Father, as eternal love, is within me and I, as its light, am within it. Therefore, who walks in this light also walks in accordance with the will of him who sent me as his light into this world. He who walks in this light cannot go astray and shall gain eternal life, since the light is in itself eternal life.”

Jesus' words, Great Gospel of John, .vol.8, 138, (W05)

WORD

“In faith lies the great promise and the resurrection. Just as I, the One, arose from the dead of my own power and might, so everyone will arise through the power of faith within him, provided this faith has apprehended Him who is Life itself. Thus he who believes in Him who came, comes and shall come from eternity as a life out of God, Himself

God, the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, without beginning and without end—has eternal life within him.”

Household of God, vol.2, 317, (W28)

HEART

“If someone hears the Word about the kingdom of God, that I preach, but does not comprehend it in his heart which, because of his love of the world, has been hardened like a smooth road, the evil one soon notices the exposed Word, which has not fallen into the soil, but onto the tread-down, worldly smooth outer surface of the heart, and tears out with ease what was actually sowed into the heart, but stuck to the worldly smooth outer surface. And behold, such a man is like the road onto which the seed - My Word - fell.”

Great Gospel of John, vol. 1,191 (W13)

4. excerpt

Source: Jakob Lorber, Gifts of Heaven

About the Purpose of the New Revelation.

Dictated by Jesus to Jakob Lorber on August 21, 1840

[HiG.01_40.08.21,01] "As far as the purpose of all these revelations is concerned, it consists of this: First it shows your highly-educated world understanding how foolish its quest is to research subjects and drag them into the realm of its unspeakable relative ignorance, subjects that will eternally remain separate from its sphere because of their depth, size and holiness, since they are only planted in the pious heart of a simple-minded person, yes indeed, as a sign of shame to worldly wisdom, even to the children in the cradle, just as I can even give it to the stones.

[HiG.01_40.08.21,02] But second this purpose also consists to show you and all the world the true paths of My compassionate love which it takes in order to establish the eternal salvation of all beings, and how, when and why all this is so and happens so – so that an end is put to all doubters in the world and the things can be seen in their original true forms. For as a good builder indeed knows best of all for what this or that must be used in a great construction, so only I can know why this, why that and how, when and whereby.

[HiG.01_40.08.21,03] Whoever studies and considers without My grace, will always go wrong. But whoever comes to Me and learns in his heart from Me, will have the truth in full, of which not even a jot will be changed in all eternity.

[HiG.01_40.08.21,04] And thirdly, the manifold wickedness of men of all classes and walks of life should be made very clearly visible – and understood well how such people stubbornly pull the holiest and purest down into the sensual mud of their world because of their blind evilness and transform it abominably into their damnable selfish purposes.

[HiG.01_40.08.21,05] Short and sweet, everything shall and must be revealed before the world so that then everyone will know how things are. Yes, the central point of the Earth shall be revealed before the eyes of the world like an uncovered meal before the guests for their strengthening nutrition. And so no sun shall be so far away that it should not be dissected into tiniest pieces under the microscope of living faith of innocence, even if its perimeter were larger than that of the greatest thought that you would ever be able to think. And also there should be no small yarn, however small, even if it were spun so finely, which would not appear in the greatly boosted light of My sun of grace! Yes, I will form transparent planets from spots and dissect the central suns into uncovered spots so that the world will see that in the end I am All in All.

[HiG.01_40.08.21,06] If the world now ends up with the insight that apart from Me there is no salvation and nor can any be found, then peace will kiss the Earth and everyone will be assured their place for ever and eternally in all love for Me! Only then will Caesar truly be Caesar, well marked by My anointing, the king a king, the duke a duke and the prince a prince, without any damnable constitution, apart from the constitution of love from Me and from all-encompassing mercy. And so the wolf shall be a guardian for the lamb!

[HiG.01_40.08.21,07] Thereby I want to level everything, so that there will no longer be any 'waterfalls' or 'landslides', but instead only the sea of My love and the streams of My grace. Everything else must become 'flat land'.

[HiG.01_40.08.21,08] And behold, all this shall happen so that the true church will be refined among the people and its victory will shine more than the light of all suns united into one – whereby then there may be 'one flock and one shepherd', whose sheep shall always hear My voice until the end of all time – when all matter will be destroyed in the fire of divine love – but likewise, if these warning words of Mine would rot fruitlessly in the mud of the world, in the fire of My just wrath!

[HiG.01_40.08.21,09] Behold, now the time of the 'small time' has come! Whoever observes it well, will have great things in all eternity. But whoever

The giving of My grace is My work, and it is not withheld from anybody.

However, the taking hold of this grace and acting in accordance with it is every free spirit's personal task.

Sunsets into Sunrises chap.144, gets annoyed and has doubts about My trustworthiness, the 'small time' will soon run out and the great one of eternal wrath will seize him! Therefore it is either or! Whatever anyone wants, he should do! But we will meet always. Amen. This say I, eternal love and wisdom. Amen, Amen, Amen!
(W46)

4a. reader question

The Earth, God's second choice?

Origin and destiny of two planets
Based on the revelation given to Jakob Lorber.

1. Question:

In chapter 46 of Bishop Martin the exploded planet Mallona is said to have been the original school of the Children of God. Only after its destruction the earth took its place.

Is the earth thus God's second choice?

2. Jesus:

Jakob Lorber "Sunsets into Sunrises", alias "Bishop Martin" (BM)

Chapter 46

THE NINTH CABINET WITH ITS SAD SECRET. THE SHATTERED WORLD OF THE ASTEROIDS AND ITS HISTORY.

[BM.01_046,01] (The Lord): "We have reached the ninth door. What do you see here? Now, My dear son Martin, you are again allowed to speak, but only what is necessary. So answer My question."

[BM.01_046,02] (Bishop Martin): "Lord, I do not see very much, as yet. There are about nine small, bare, shapeless globes floating in this pure celestial air. Except for some scrub, I cannot discern much upon them, although I have the impression as if a vast celestial world were becoming visible in the very far distance. But, due to this distance, it is very vague, and I cannot see what is on it."

[BM.01_046,03] Four of the globules circling closer to us seem to be inhabited because I notice on them a peculiar type of small buildings, although I cannot see any human beings. These, I assume, would not be very tall, probably a kind of infusorian man. One of these globules is just floating past the door. The only things I can see on it are some stunted shrubs and tiny dwellings, which look rather like ant hills. But there is no movement, except that of the globule itself. Do tell me, o Lord, whether that, too, is a planet, or what?"

[BM.01_046,04]. (Say I): "Yes, My dear son Martin, that, too, is a planet; however, as you can see, not a whole one, but a badly mangled one. For, in addition to the nine pieces circling irregularly in front of us, there is still a lot of wreckage: some of it scattered on other planets, some floating around in disorderly courses in the endless spaces of creation. Here and there, if they come too close, they are attracted and sort of swallowed by some solid planet or sun.

[BM.01_046,05].. You have now some questions in your mind: 'How and why was this planet shattered? What was it like before? What were its inhabitants like [BM.01_046,06] "The answer to the 'how' is My omnipotence: It was My will!

[BM.01_046,07] And why? Behold, this planet was originally destined to what has now become the destination of the earth. For the first fallen spirit had chosen it, with the promise to humble himself and return to Me. Therefore, this planet was meant to become the star of salvation. Here, he promised to be active by himself without ever interfering with the sphere of any of the star's inhabitants, nor those of any other planet.

Only body and soul have to learn; the spirit has already everything within it out of God.

Childhood of Jesus, chap. 55
(W94)

[BM.01_046,08].. However, he did not keep his promise, but used his freedom to such an evil end that no life could make progress on the planet. As a result, he was banned into the fiery center of the planet, and the destination of that planet was transferred to your earth forthwith.

[BM.01_046,09].. When the earth was ready for human beings and I sowed the seed for the first man, the evil one tore at his prison walls. Out of compassion. I let him do what he wanted, and he tore his earth. to pieces and plunged into the chasm of your earth, where, ever since, he has been doing all that is familiar to you.

[BM.01_046,10] The reason for the destruction of this planet was, as in all things, My compassion. For, while the planet was still whole and inhabited by many powerful nations, the dragon poisoned their hearts with lust for power. As a result, they swore each other continual war and complete annihilation to the last man.

[BM.01_046,11] There was no other way then but a judgment, and that was the bursting of the planet, whereby many millions of its very tall inhabitants perished. Some were buried under debris, but most of them were flung out into space. Some even fell onto earth, and from that time also dates the pagan myth of the war of the giants.

[BM.01_046,12]. But the first human beings died out completely on the remaining pieces of this originally largest planet, because they were unable to find the necessary food. They were eventually replaced by a very small race of men, extremely modest, who represent the hair on the head and the eyebrows [of the cosmic man]. In the background, you can still see the whole planet as it used to be, preserved for the great day that is going to dawn in the whole of infinity.

7. overview: the new revelation

Since the beginning of time God had been in contact with mankind. With every nation. In every century. Without interruption.

The form of communication differs. God came in the form of angels, He used prophets whom He instructed (e.g. Isaiah). He gave people visions (e.g. Swedenborg) or revealed His messages in dreams (e.g. Joseph) and He had people write by direct dictation (e.g. Moses).

Communications, instructions and messages did not stop with Jesus. Some churches, unfortunately, claim that Jesus said it all. With Him revelation stopped. Despite the contrary written in scripture.

The New Revelation, God's New Word, was received by dictation. Word by word. Every word of those 25 volumes was dictated to Lorber, Engel and Mayerhofer by the Lord. It took 37 years to finish. Some say it's the Eternal Gospel promised by the angel. It sure contains wisdom for generations of researchers.

The two new commandments Jesus introduced complementing the 10 of the Old Testament are "Love your God with all you power and all your heart" and "Love your neighbor like yourself". And added, that your enemy also is your neighbor (e.g. Luke 10:27).

Out of the seven Spirits of God three stand out: Love, Wisdom and Power.

1. In His New Word, the New Revelation, God reconfirms again and again that love is the basis of God. "The Father" really is God's love.
2. God created all beings - all angels, all souls, all spirits - out of love. It was out of His endless love that despite the high treason of Lucifer and one fifth of all created beings He did not destroy them but created the material universe. Matter is a prison and school through which He leads the rebellious souls back into His kingdom.
3. Out of love He created man and put him to test on earth and gave him the choice between good and evil.
4. Out of love He took flesh in Jesus, His "Son", suffered terribly, accepted utmost humiliation and sacrificed His physical body to free all humans from the slavery of sin.
5. Out of His love He gave mankind the privilege to become His children if they choose to obey. A privilege not even His first angels have.
6. Out of love He has been incredibly patient with mankind. But He also said that out of this love He will chastise mankind if they turn away from Him, lest they'll be lost. That happened and will happen again.
